Building an Effective Adult Faith Formation Program

With insight gleaned from working with thousands of parishes across the country, best-selling author and president of Ascension Press, Matthew Pinto and Northeast Region Diocesan Representative, Allen Austin, will lay out a vision that can be easily implemented to inspire and engage adults in your parish.

We are all aware of the importance of discernment throughout the various periods and stages of the RCIA. Discover how to develop the ministry of the Catechumenate in your parish and with your team. Bring your notepad, as this will be an information-rich session.

About Matthew Pinto

Matthew Pinto is the founder and president of Ascension Press and the author or co-author of a variety of best-selling works, including Did Adam and Eve Have Belly Buttons?, Did Jesus Have a Last Name?, and A Guide to the Passion, a New York Times bestseller. He is co-founder of several other Catholic initiatives such as the Theology of the Body Institute, Envoy Magazine, and CatholicExchange.com.

About Allen Austin

Allen Austin is the diocesan representative for the Northeast for Ascension Press. Prior to Ascension, he spent seventeen years in youth and young-adult ministry and fourteen years on staff in the Archdiocese of Atlanta. He has spoken all over the country at high schools, colleges, youth camps, and conferences. He has led more than fifty retreats for both teens and adults. He is a son, a husband, and a father and lives with his family in Philadelphia.
